

Introducing Path To Paris

The Paris 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games are nearly here! In preparation, get active with our Team GB and ParalympicsGB heroes as we travel the globe on the Path to Paris.

PATH TO PARIS

Athlete Ambassadors

The Path to Paris challenge is supported by Olympians and Paralympians, including Kye White, Chris Skelley, Debbie Kerr, Beth Munro, Melanie Woods, and David Ames.

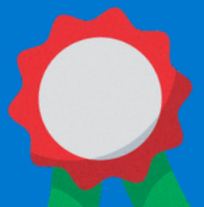

Online activity tracker and resources

Log activity and follow your class and school's progress on the Path to Paris website. You can also find lots of resources to launch and support the challenge, including quick activities to get pupils moving.

Win prizes!

There are regular prize draws throughout the programme. Log activity or share how you're getting active with us to be in with a chance to win prizes for your team!

Power your team on the Path to Paris!

Start the journey to the Paris 2024 Olympic and Paralympic Games!

The Path to Paris challenge is a free, simple to set up and easy to use programme designed to integrate physical activity into the lives of young people.

1. Get the whole school involved

Launch the challenge in assembly and use our athlete work-out and warm-up video to kick start you on your virtual journey around the world to reach Paris in time for the Games.

You can find an Assembly Introduction presentation and all the steps on the Path to Paris website to kick start your journey. You can track your progress at any time using the Dashboard.

6. Learn something new

The Path to Paris programme is full of additional resources and activities to enhance your children's learning experience. Why not check out our Travel Guide full of cross-curricular learning opportunities, perfect to build children's knowledge of new and existing Olympic and Paralympic Sports.

3. Remember your pin

Each team has a unique pin that helps you easily locate your team, when you create your team make sure to make a note of it so you can share with children and parents when they log activity at home.

2. Create your teams

You can create teams of any size, how about creating a team for each class so you can watch different teams progress as children log their activities.

4. Log your activity

Log all of your teams' active minutes on the Path to Paris website to be in with a chance of winning amazing prizes, including a visit from a real Olympic or Paralympic athlete!

5. Promote the challenge to parents

Send home the Parent Flyer with their unique team pin written on and encourage children to use Paris Power Up resources for inspiration and to log activity at home.

7. Show and Tell

Inspire other schools across the UK! Post about your experiences on Facebook, Instagram, or X and remember to tag us, or email us at getset@getset.com to let us know how you're getting active, with a chance to be featured on our Show and Tell page.

