

What you'll learn

The course is built around four key pillars:

- Understanding context
- Leadership behaviours
- System working
- Place-based working

Course format

Flexible delivery

Request a course for your organisation or book on to one of our scheduled courses.

Interactive sessions

The course is delivered in an enjoyable and engaging style to share everyone's views and experiences.

Cost

The course is free to demonstrate Active Essex commitment to sharing our learning with the Essex system.

Active Essex Leadership Course

Introduction to innovative leadership for system and place-based working in times of complexity and change

Are you curious about what leadership approaches are successfully achieving impact to bring about positive change in our systems and communities? This course showcases best practice from around the world that you can apply straightaway to improve your effectiveness. The course uses the learning developed by the Active Essex team to understand how impactful leaders are creating the culture and conditions to successfully empower communities, places, and change systems.

Course overview

This engaging and interactive course introduces the latest innovation from outstanding global thought leaders in courageous and impactful leadership tailored to the unique challenges of system and place-based working. No matter what sector you are working in, this course will inspire you with the knowledge and practices to work more effectively in our complex and changing times.

Endorsements and Testimonials

"Jason and Kerry are engaging throughout. Our team feel highly privileged to have been taken through the leadership programme"
Helen Bushell, Senior Head of Funding, National Lottery Community Fund

Tutors: Jason Fergus, Active Essex Director and Kerry McDonald, Special Adviser

How to get in touch..

Contact tutor Kerry McDonald at kerry.mcdonald@activeessex.org or speak with one of our hub teams.

Find your local relationship team here:

SCAN ME!

activeessex.org